

CHAPTER 22. INTEGRATED AIRMAN CERTIFICATION AND/OR RATING APPLICATION PROCESS

SECTION 1. BACKGROUND

1. OBJECTIVE. To use the Integrated Airman Certification and /or Application (IACRA) Web site to complete the airman certification process. This chapter provides guidance on using the Internet version of Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) Form 8710-1, Airman Certification and/or Rating Application. Successful completion of this task results in correctly completed certification documents and the appropriate exercise of the examiner's authority.

2. GENERAL. IACRA is a web-based program that automates the airman certification process and electronically captures and validates the information required to complete the application and temporary airman certificate. The application is accessible over the internet and integrates multiple FAA datamart data with IACRA. The IACRA process provides the following benefits to the examiner:

A. Assigns FAA Tracking Number (FTN) to all registered users.

B. Provides immediate validation checks of information entered on the application which eliminates errors and validates data.

C. Speeds up the application process by sending applications electronically to the Civil Aviation Registry, AFS-700, in Oklahoma City.

D. Provides the ability to sign the application using digital signature, allowing the certification process to function in a paperless environment as mandated by the Government Paperwork Elimination Act.

E. Provides continuous access to the latest web-based version of IACRA for registered users. This eliminates the time and expense of distributing ACRA Compact Disks with updates.
